1. Approval of Minutes - approved by vote
2. Financial Report (Prepared by Lynn Medley Presented by Tim Estes) - $20,410.85 balance available. $100 received for sports page fundraiser to go toward instrument fund if voted on next month. $6648 net profit is the final number for fall show.
3. Committee Reports
 - a. Membership (Amy Terhune) - no report
 - b. Equipment/Trucks (Rich VSP presented by Mr. Auman) - all equipment is working. Truck is contracted for spring trip.
 - c. Fundraising aka Ways and Means (Angela Kenyon) - cookie dough sheets passed out last week. It will run for 2 weeks.
 - d. Hospitality (Marilynn Estes) - Ready for Saturday. All volunteer slots and food donations filled. Will prep teachers lounge Friday afternoon/evening.
 - e. Chaperones (Michele Matthews) - Chaperone meeting following this meeting. Indoor drumlines will need chaperones March 21st. We have multiple kids with peanut and tree nut allergies. No nut products will be allowed on any the busses for any reason, or in the rooms with the kids who have these allergies.
 - f. Indoor Show March 7 (Tim Estes and Anne Urenda) - Still need more sign ups on sign up genius. New kids on winter guard are not on this master list. Students have their own sign up genius to sign up for volunteers and guides. 29 Adult slots are open still. Monitors are needed most. Percussion warm up spots A and B will be designated in the packet. Set up Friday at 4:30pm. Will see how much we can get done. The variety show will be going on Friday night. Val needs acknowledgments for names of staff/coaches for programs. Custodians will be Jose Mutrea and Thomas Threatt. The trailer is here. Richard Collier drove the trailer and got in at 4:00am! Saida will get Val the names for sponsors. Val will send the program in to Tim Wednesday night.

- g. Newcomer's Liaison (Mary Susan John) - Please get your kids to sign up for guides. We need 58 guide shifts! They have their own sign up genius. Non-band students and middle schoolers can volunteer too. Students not in band can get volunteer hours for this.
- h. Band Director (Mr. Auman) - Festival March 12th. Early bird will meet Wednesday morning this week and next week for rehearsals to make up missed time for snow days. 11 kids auditioned for all state. Daniel Koontz made it for sure. Jackson Brunner may have made it depending on instrumentation.

4. Old/New Business

Up Coming Band Events (Mr. Auman)

Spirit Wear (Val Powers) - order goes in tomorrow morning.
